Making the Future More Secure for Your Loved One with Special Needs

presented by Donald T. Brown, ChFC, ChSNC

In this one-of-a-kind experience, Don will lead participants through a step-by-step journey designed to preserve government benefits, protect financial assets, and focus on quality of life and a lifetime of care for individuals with special needs.

Don strives to make making financial topics fun and interesting. He has the unparalleled ability to energize a crowd, make people laugh, and solve complex financial problems using easy-to-understand ideas and stories. He finds simplicity is the key to inspiring families to take action in this important process.

As a financial services executive with 25 years of special care planning experience, Don is uniquely qualified to advise special care families and the businesses that serve them. He is highly credentialed and experienced in retirement, estate, and special care planning.

Don frequently speaks to employer groups, nonprofit organizations, business owners, and families. What makes his presentations extraordinary is the real-world experience he draws on to connect with his audience. Don's talks, coupled with his resources and usable tools, are practical, easy to understand, and completely unique.
